Consumption Of Water Tops Supply, Claim

Superintendent Cites Figures In Answer To City Council

Water Superintendent B. V. BeVier today replied to queries of the general public and City Council regarding the critical water shortage which Salem is experiencing.

Condensed into its most compact form, the superintendent's explanation asserts that the demand for water is simply greater than the supply.

Mr. BeVier pointed out that June is one of the peak months of the year in water consumption. Since 1945, he stated, consumption during that month has increased from 1,132,000 gallons of water per day to more than 1,800,000 gallons a day.

Says Water Sources Limited

Shortages of water occurred many times in the past, he said, but whenever the situation became acute, the city managed to find and exploit new well fields—thereby preventing the shortages from becoming critical. Now, however, the city has exhausted all sources of new water and consumption is still mounting, he said.

So far this month, he went on, the city has been using approximately 1,1850,000 gallons of water per day. Total supply of all the city's wells does not exceed 1,-800,000 gallon, he said. So there is a continuous drain on the water which accumulates in the Stewart Rd., reservoir during the weekends when the city's factories are idle.

To make it worse, he said, peak consumption days occur every month during which use of water amounts to over 2,300,000 gallons per day—500,000 gallons more than the daily supply from the wells.

Industrial Angle

Were it not for the shutdown of industry every weekend, he said, the water situation would not be merely critical, but disastrous. To emphasize this point he revealed that Mullins Manufacturing Corp., alone consumes an average of 900,000 gallons per day—half of the amount produced by the city's wells.

That is the overall picture, he said, but other factors contributed in producing the present shortage which first reared its partched head Friday, June 6.

That day was one of the first really hot and humid days of the year, he said, and residents consumed more water than usual. Also, as subsequently discovered and repaired, two leaks had appeared in the city's 16-inch main on Newgarden St.

Although the leakage did not show through street surface water until several days later, they had existed prior to the shortage, resulting in the escape of much of the reservoir water, he stated.

Other Complications

The situation was further complicated by the collapse of two of the city's well pumps, those installed in a Whinnery field well and the one at the High School. Because of the heavy drainage on the wells, he said, breakdowns can be expected to occur more often, due to the increased acidity of the water and the speedier build-up of iron in the wells.

Still another contributing factor was the sudden collapse of one of the two 500-gallon-per-minute pumps at the water works on W. State St. This resulted in the double dilemma of not only having too little water—but being without the necessary equipment to pump what there was through the city's mains.

The only final solution to the city's vital water problem can be expected with the completion of the new East Cold Run reservoir which should be processing water by Sept. 1, he stated.

If the months in the interim are as hot and humid as June started out to be, BeVier said, the new reservoir might well be a lifesaver for the city.

Two Traffic Mishaps Occur On City Streets

Cars driven by Maxine England of MC 1, Salem, and D. Sommerville of RD 1, Salem, collided in the front of the State Theater at 10:10 p.m. Wednesday, causing minor damage to each auto.

Another two-car mishap occurred at 3:12 p.m. Wednesday when a car driven north on S. Lundy Ave. by Julius Sandusky collided with a car driven west on Euclid St. by Harold C. Morrow of RD 1, Salem.

Workers Feel Strike Pinch

Walkout Causes Financial Hardship

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Philip Murray's striking CIO United Steelworkers are beginning to show signs of financial hardship as the 18-day-old walkout bites ever deeper into the national defense program.

Walter Klis, president of a big steelworkers' local at Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp. in Pittsburgh, says several requests for financial assistance have been received from steelworkers' families.

The powerful union does not provide strike benefits. However, most of its locals are reported in healthy financial condition and ready to aid any hardship cases.

Referring to his members, Klis said:

"They're just running out of money. So far we have referred them to state and county welfare groups but we plan to set up our own welfare organization this week.'

100,000 Laid Off

In addition to the 650,000 striking steelworkers, more than 10,000 in allied industries have been laid off as a direct result of the strike. Most of the 10,000 are employed by railroads and coal mines, but the crippling strike is also being felt in other fields.

Ford Motor Company is starting a four-day week for most of its manufacturing operations and assembly plants this week. This will delay plant shutdowns.

In Philadelphia, what is believed to be the first union shop agreement in the basic steel industry was reached between the Midvale Company, which employes about 3,500 workers, and Local 18887 of the AFL Federal Labor Union.

With the union shop, a major issue reportedly blocking a settlement of the dispute between the basic industry and the USW, Midvale employes received a 12½-cent hourly pay boost plus other benefits to bring each worker a package wage increase of from 2 to 24 cents an hour.

Twin Girls Born To Ingrid Bergman

ROME (AP)—A wan and weary Ingrid Bergman shed tears of joy today as she got her first good look at her day - old twin daughters.

Isabel, seven pounds, three ounces, and her younger sister by half an hour — eight-pound, five-ounce Ingrid — dozed in fitful unawareness of their international publicity.

Sharing his wife's joy after a night-long vigil at her bedside in the flower-packed hospital room was Roberto Rossellini, for whose love the blonde Swedish film star abandoned her husband and a Hollywood career. The couple have a son born in 1950.

The twins, two weeks overdue, were born Wednesday night.

The 35-year-old mother was reported doing well.

Irate Swedes Build Up Defense Against Russia; Danes Alerted

STOCKHOLM, Sweden — Traditionally neutral Sweden, irate over the shooting down of a Swedish plane by Soviet jet fighters, beefed up her already strong defenses against Russia today but was expected to still fight shy of participation in such Western alliances as the Atlantic Pact.

The Swedish government already has ordered a step-up in air attack alertness throughout the country and instructed its air force and navy to shoot back if fired on by Soviet planes. Neighboring Denmark also told its airmen to return fire if attacked.

Swedish Foreign Minister Oesten Unden, cut short his Italian vacation after the incident and was due here by air from Rome today.

But political observers expressed doubt that Unden's return would result in any change in Sweden's long-held policy of "freedom from alliances." She has been a neutral in European wars for more than 10 years.

Sweden flatly rejected last night a Russian protest that the ill-fated Catalina flying boat, blasted from the air Monday over the Baltic Sea with seven men aboard, had flown over Soviet territory and started the shooting.

The Swedish reply declared that the only two Swedish planes operating in the area at the time were two rescue flying boats, both unarmed and therefore incapable of shooting at anybody.

A 'thorough investigation' had established that both stayed over international waters and that the downed plane never flew closer than 15 miles from Soviet territory, the note added. Russia claims her territorial waters extend 12 miles beyond her shore.

Both Catalinas were searching for a third Swedish plane missing since last Friday with eight men aboard and also feared to have fallen victim to Russian guns.

The two main theories here on the reason for the Russian action were:

1. Soviet jet fighter crews are trigger-happy because they are under strict orders to keep outside observers away from huge Russian air-sea maneuvers now reportedly being held in the Baltic; or

2. The Russians are deliberately conducting a scare campaign to intimidate their Western neighbors on the Baltic.

U. N. Battle On Germ War Seen

U. S. Calls Latest Soviet Move Fraud

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A full-scale battle over germ warfare appeared to be shaping up in the United Nations today after the United States denounced Russia's latest move as a fraud.

The new Soviet proposal was a request that the U.N. Security Council appeal to the United States and several other countries to ratify the 1925 Geneva Protocol outlawing bacteriological weapons.

Soviet Delegate Jacob A. Malik presented his resolution with a brief, mildly worded speech, carefully avoiding any mention of previous Communist charges that the U.S. had used germ warfare in Korea.

Both delegates and audience — expecting another blast at the Americans — listened in amazement as the usually sharp-tongued Malik made his appeal in soft tones and conciliatory words.

Despite Malik's avoidance of the Korean issue, U.S. Delegate Ernest A. Gross harked back to the earlier Communist charges as soon as he got the floor to reply.

Gross said the Communist charges of germ warfare were part of a campaign of lies and that there was no evidence this campaign had been abandoned. He continued his attack despite efforts of Malik, as the June council president, to rule him out of order.

Malik said the proposal which the Soviet government had presented had no relation whatsoever to the Korean question.

Policeman Killed In Auto Mishap

RAVENNA, O. —State Highway Patrolmen said today they still were investigating an auto collision that killed a retired Cleveland mounted policeman and his wife.

William C. Cunnan, 64, and his wife, Clara, 49, were killed in a collision at the intersection of Brosius Rd. and Rt. 305 Wednesday night.

The three boys in the other car were from Garrettsville. The all are in Robinson Memorial Hospital today and are expected to recover.

State Highway Patrolman R. E. McKenna said the driver of that car was John Reichelderfer, 18, a mason's helper employed by Kothera Brothers in Garrettsville.

Reichelderfer and his companions — Charles Koch, 16, and Richard Baker, 17 — were returning home for a swim. They drove onto the main road from Brosius Rd., McKenna said.

Reichelderfer received face cuts. Koch and Baker suffered cuts and bruises.

GOP Presidential Bidders Pledge Cut In Taxes

10 GOP Delegates To Be Selected In Illinois Seen For Taft

By The Associated Press

The top contenders for presidential nomination were on record today to cut taxes if elected.

Taxes were a topic in talks Wednesday by Ohio Sen. Robert Taft and Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, running one - two in the race for Republican presidential nomination.

They, in turn, were a topic in an an address by Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, who has more delegate votes lined up than any of his rivals going into the Democratic presidential - nominating convention.

Would Balance Budget

In Denver, Eisenhower told Oregon's GOP convention delegates he would balance the national budget if he were president. This, plus seeing to it that the Allies are as militarily strong as Russia, would make tax reduction possible, he said. He estimated this would take about two years and after that would come a "steady shrinkage" in the tax load.

Taft, in a Washington speech said if he becomes president he will seek "a straight 15 per cent cut in taxes' and a 25-billion-dollar slash in federal spending — from 85 to 60 billions — within two years.

Talking to CIO Communications Workers in Cleveland, Kefauver said:

Isolationists Dominate

"No matter what Republican is in the White House, the Republican isolationists will dominate the party."

Averell Harriman, who beat Kefauver about 4-to-1 in the District of Columbia's primary Tuesday, predicted confidently: "I will win the nomination.'

Democratic nomination requires 616 delegate votes. The Associated Press pre-convention tally gives 246 to Kefauver. Sen. Richard Russell is in second spot with 114½, followed by Harriman's 91½.

Taft's nationwide total of 466 is tops in The Associated Press Republican scoresheet. Eisenhower has 393. Nomination at the GOP

Soap Box Derby Racers To Be Inspected Friday, Saturday

Inspection of Soap Box Derby racers will be held beginning at 10 a. m. Friday morning until 4 p. m. and again Saturday in the same hours, derby entrants have been reminded.

The derby inspection committee recommends that boys have their racers inspected as early as possible to have time to make any changes required before the race at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Busses will run to the track beginning at 1:30 p.m. Sunday and will return to Salem after the derby. The State Highway Department will close Damascus Rd., on which the derby is being run, early Sunday morning.

There is no admission to the race, in which 51 Salem and district boys have registered, and concession stands will operate to serve refreshments during the derby.

The Salem race, co-sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Chevrolet Motor Co., will select a boy to compete in the national Soap Box Derby in Akron, Aug. 10, together with about 159 boys from throughout the nation.

Top prizes in the Salem derby include a $100 war bond, a bicycle, a tool set and a power tool set. Top prizes in the national derby are a new automobile and a four-year college scholarship.

Because of the lack of parking space in the vicinity of Blackburn Hill, where the Salem derby will be run, the derby officials urge as many spectators as possible use the bus service to get to the race.

Truman Studies Taft Law Use In Steel Strike

JOHN MANNING, a Weymouth, Mass., bus driver visits his wife Marian in the South Shore Hospital shortly before she gave birth last night to quadruplets—three boys and a girl.

Truman Doubts Workers Would Obey Injunction

Taxes Should Be Raised, Not Cut, President Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman said today he is considering use of the Taft-Hartley act in the steel dispute.

He indicated at a news conference he has doubts, however, the 650,000 striking CIO Steelworkers would obey a court order to return to work.

The President said his decision as to whether he will invoke the Taft-Hartley law will not be influenced by Senate or House action.

Truman also told his news conference taxes should be increased rather than decreased as advocated by both top candidates for the Republican presidential nomination.

No Dem Will Cut Taxes

The President said he didn't think any Democratic president would reduce taxes.

He said if taxes could have been reduced he would have tried to do so himself.

A reporter wanted to know whether a Republican president actually could reduce taxes.

No, unless he wants to put the country more in the hole than it is now, Truman replied.

The Senate has voted a request that Truman use the Taft-Hartley law in the steel dispute and there are signs the House will follow suit.

Quadruplets Born To Mother of Three

WEYMOUTH, Mass. (AP) — Mrs. Marian L. Manning, 27, is the mother of healthy quadruplets today.

Three boys and a girl were born to her at South Shore Hospital last night. She has three other youngsters.

The first child, the girl, was born at 9:23 p.m., the second at 10:13, and the third and fourth 11 and 16 minutes later.

The babies, all placed in incubators, were reported to weigh between two and three pounds each and to measure about a foot long. Several hours after the last birth, hospital physicians reported their condition as fair.

Deliveries Called Normal

All four deliveries were described as normal by Dr. Robert R. Ryan, who delivered the babies with the assistance of Dr. Edward J. Howley.

Dr. Ryan said that Mrs. Manning was doing well and will be allowed to sit up today if she feels strong enough.

Mrs. Manning entered the hospital May 24 for a virus infection. She remained there until the births on advice of her husband John, a 35-year-old bus line operator, who explained he did not want to risk a premature arrival without medical attention.

"What would I do if they came while she was at home,' he said.

Father Not At Hospital

Manning was not at the hospital when the first birth occurred. He had left word with the hospital officials that he would remain at home awaiting a phone call.

His wife went into active labor one hour and 18 minutes before the first birth.

The babies were baptized quickly after birth by the Rev. William J. Commane, a Catholic priest. The first baby, hospital officials said, gave a healthy scream as the water was poured on its head.

Hospital officials described baptism so soon as the "usual precautionary measure.' It is often done in premature births.

Due Aug. 15

The infants, due Aug. 15, were nearly two months premature, but physicians explained that such multiple births rarely go full term.

According to medical sources quadruplets occur once in every 680,000 births.

X-rays taken at the time Mrs. Manning entered the hospital in May indicated she would give birt to quads.

Nurses at the hospital said Mrs. Manning "was wonderful throughout. When she was having severe pains early in labor she never murmured."

The spare, white-haired Dr. Ryan said. "It is a great responsibility to deliver so many babies but it is a privilege for a physician, too."

Mullins To Close For Vacations

Steel Strike Forces 3-Day Work Week

Mullins Manufacturing Corporation announced today that its Salem and Warren plants will be closed Monday for two weks for employee vacations, and that operations at its Liberty plant at Warren will be reduced to three days a week starting Monday.

A three-day-a-week schedule also was announced for the department producing ordnance material at Plant 3 here.

Harry M. Heckathorn, executive vice president, said the shortage of steel is forcing the new work schedule at Liberty and Plant 3. He said the three-day schedule was established in order to provide employment on a part-time basis for a longer period than would be possible if full production was maintained.

It is anticipated that enough steel will be available on the reduced schedule to last through July

Resumption of a full work schedule on ordnance items depends upon the steel supply situation, Heckathorn said. The Liberty plant produces mortar shells and artillery shells for the Army Ordnance Department. The Salem Plant 3 department is producing an item for the Navy.

Heckathorn said the decision to stop all production of Youngstown Kitchens equipment at Warren and Salem, and to halt all contract stamping work at Salem during the vacation period also was based on the steel situation. Original plans called for partial operation by employees not entitled to vacations and those entitled to only one week.

Vacationing employees will return to work on July 7.

Legion Band Plans Schedule Of Activities

The American Legion Quaker City band under the direction of its newly appointed director, Wayne Wilson, will have a full schedule during the last two weeks of June and all of July.

The 50-piece organization will hold a practice tonight in preparation for its performance as "official band" Sunday at Cleveland Stadium. The band will open the program at the Cleveland-Boston doubleheader to which the American Legion is sponsoring an excursion train.

The band will present its first park concert at 8:15 p.m. next Thursday at Centennial Park. It will be the first of three such concerts planned for the summer months.

July 2 the band will appear in a celebration parade at Wellsville and then take part in a Fourth of July concert in an afternoon performance at Poland.

The 10th District American Legion parade will be held July 6 in Coshocton. The local band will march in it, joining other organizations from Coshocton, East Liverpool, Lisbon, Youngstown, Hanoverton, Canton and Steubenville. Last year the convention was held in Salem.

The second park concert will be presented July 31 in a windup of the month's activites.

Civic Benefit Fund May Aid Hanoverton Find New Doctor

HANOVERTON—A working demonstration of civic pride is being manifested by the people of this Columbiana county village.

Hanoverton, in conjunction with Hanover Township and other communities in the township, is working enthusiastically on a Civic Benefit Fund.

Origin of the project goes back to last January when this community first began an earnest search for a doctor to take over the practice of Dr. H. J. Pelley, who is retiring after 56 years' continuous service to the people of the district.

With Dr. Pelley's approval, the need of a physician was advertised in the American Medical Assocaition Journal. Several doctors expressed a desire to come to Hanoverton but the drawback has been the lack of immediate housing.

Subsequently, the New Doctor Committee hit upon the idea of a Civic Benefit Fund. Primarily, the fund will be used to make housing and office space and even office equipment, if necessary, available to a new doctor.

All disbursements from the Civic Fund would be on a loan basis, the new physician to repay the money into the fund. In that manner, the original amount will stay intact and the fund can be increased from year to year and used as a miniature Community Fund to the benefit of the entire area, to be managed by a competent committee.

The Hanover Township Volunteer Fire department will sponsor the raising of the first funds and plans are underway for a festival to be held during the Hanoverton Homecoming, July 11 and 12, Mayor Howard W. Hart reports.

Festival proceeds will be divided equally between the Civic Benefit Fund and the Fire Department.

U.S. Debt For Year To Be 5-6 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is going to wind up its year two to three billion dollars better off than it expected. But it still will be deep in the red.

Government experts, speaking privately, said today the deficit—the amount by which the government overspends its income—is likely to be less than 6¼ billion when the fiscal year ends June 30. It could be as low as 5 1-3 billion.

President Truman, in his budget message last January, figured the government would go in the hole by $8,200,000,000.

The President estimated total spending would jump 59 per cent above last year due to a huge expansion in rearming the U.S. and friendly foreign countries. But the military expansion hasn't taken place on that scale.

Officials now say spending will fall at least 3½ billion, and possibly more than four billion, below Truman's $70,900,000,000 spending estimate.

Drew Pearson Punched Again

$75,000-A-Year Lobbyist Hits Him

WASHINGTON (AP) — Drew Pearson has been punched again.

And the man who threw the punch, $75,000 - a - year lobbyist Charles Patrick Clark, says it couldn't have landed on a more appropriate target.

"I felt I'd be unfaithful to my Irish forebearers," Clark told reporters, "if I didn't do something."

The one-blow encounter between the columnist - commentator and his critic—who, in turn, had been raked over the coals twice in Pearson's column—occurred after lunch yesterday in the lobby of the fashionable Mayflower Hotel.

Pearson, 54, weighs 175 pounds, Clark, 44, weighs around 180.

There were varying accounts of the incident but they agreed on this detail: one punch was thrown. A straight left. It grazed Pearson's cheek and left a smarting red spot on his neck.

Pearson went to the U.S. attorney's office and swore out a warrant charging simple assault.

Clark arranged to be in court today to answer the complaint. He's a lawyer. He worked for the Truman War Investigating Committee when the present occupant of the White House was a senator. Now he's registered as a lobbyist for the Spanish government.

Pearson said last night he didn't get a chance to return Clark's punch and wasn't sure if he would have, anyhow.

"I don't conduct altercations in the lobby of the Mayflower Hotel,' the columnist said.

Clark said he was bothered by several things. The columnist had written recently that he—Clark—was getting American money for Spain faster than Generalissimo Francisco Franco could spend it. Also, Clark blamed Pearson for helping defeat Sen. Brewster (R-Me) in Maine's Republican primary election last Monday.

Pearson was pummeled by Sen. Joseph McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, at the Sulgrave Club in 1950. He's suing McCarthy and others for $5,100,000.

MARIETTA LADY LOSES 40 LBS. USING RENNEL

Mary L. Schramm, 513 6th St., Marietta, Ohio, writes: "Since taking Rennel Concentrate I have lost 40 lbs. and therefore can assure you that I highly recommend Rennel. I am an elderly lady and find that losing this excess weight has also helped my arthritis."

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose pounds of bulky fat and help regain slender more youthful curves—if reducible excess fat doesn't seem to disappear almost like magic just return the empty bottle to the manufacturer for your money back. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active. Insist on genuine Rennel.

Business Method

A cost-cutting drive in General Electric Co. has been described in detail by the Wall Street Journal, which emphasizes that this is the traditional secret of mass production for mass consumption.

General Electric is reviewing every step in the manufacture of every one of its many products. To uncover every possibility of saving money without cheapening the real value of the article. The aim, obviously, is to tighten up efficiency to increase the company's margin of security against competition in a buyers' market.

This is the famed "business method" which all constructive critics of government have urged public jobholders to adopt. It was the purpose of the Hoover Commission to bring about widespread adoption of the method through executive orders and federal legislation.

But the Hoover Commission was not designed to be continuous. Chances are that some of its recommendations now are out of date. Since one of the major items of cost in all goods and services is taxation, there should be a permanent campaign to cut government costs.

Otherwise, the savings made possible by business efficiency simply will be soaked up by spendthrift government, with no advantage to consumers.

No Steam, No Fire

In a report on political undercurrents in Italy, a recent dispatch refers to the lack of oratorical steam in the De Gasperi regime. The idea is that a government with firm, honest convictions is failing to sell itself to a people who like a little excitement in their public life.

This is making it relatively easy for extremists to pick up a following; they offer excitment. That is true of more countries than Italy.

Political moderation is the victim, in a sense, of its strength. The thing which makes it attractive weakens it among those whose chief aim is to destroy it. The United States had that experience with the Communists in the days when it imagined its civil liberties would be jeopardized if it tried to take action against them.

A few more years of that sort of thing and the Alger Hisses would have been so firmly entrenched they could not have been dislodged. As Whittaker Chambers has written, it was failure to find any fire of conviction in the spokesmen for political moderation that tempted him and other homegrown Reds to turn themselves over to the Communist Conspiracy. They wanted steam, fire, a sense of purpose and a thrill.

Whatever happened to the old-fashioned idea that the most thrilling challenge ever made to man was the preservation of his freedom?

Detouring The Valleys

The Federal Reserve Board's order to ease the financing of new houses demonstrates what can be done to iron out the peaks and valleys of the economic cycle.

The effect of the order will be to slow down an expected decline from a house-construction peak of approximately one million this year. It will not stimulate construction so much as it will cushion the shock of a fall from the all-time record of nearly a million new dwellings in one year.

This is the theory back of all the measures designed to minimize the ups and downs of business activity. They are designed to offset the effects of natural causes.

The Federal Reserve Board making it easier to finance new dwellings will bring into the market a certain number of persons who had been unable or unwilling to meet the former requirements. A similar order a few weeks ago is having the same effect on the sale of home appliances and automobiles.

Since the early thirties, it has been contended that if the United States controlled the economic cycle its peaks and valleys could be minimized; there would be less fluctuation between its peaks and valleys. The reduction of down payments on new houses is one of the controls developed to slow down the business recession which is materializing as more and more people drop out or are forced out of the market for goods.

Why is it that shoestrings always know when you are in a hurry—and break?

There's always a touch of humor in it when a husband sends his wife a vacation card saying, "Wish you were here."

Counter-Strategy

By DAVID LAWRENCE

It's Needed To Offset Soviet Gains

Anyone who stops to think about what Soviet Russia is doing today in Euope can't help coming to the conclusion that the Communists have everything to gain and nothing to lose by their strategy of harassment and infiltration of the Democratic countries.

The only threat they face will never be used against them unless they attack—it's the threat of large-scale war with atom bombs.

In the meantime, every bit of leverage, all the bargaining power and all the cards are in favor of the Moscow regime, and the astonishing fact is that the Western Allies have developed no countr-strategy except that of military rearmament.

THIS IS NOT to say armament isn't essential—for it is. But it can also be said that a mere threat to use military force has not prevented and will not prevent Communist Russia from pursuing her present tactics. She knows full well that an offensive war or a preventive war will never be started against her, and she will be careful not to provoke one either.

So what the Allies have today is a policy that keeps piling up the expense of armament and economc aid and runs the risk of creating hopelessness and frustration everywhere because it is aimless. Any policy that merely seeks to "wait out" the prolonged period of tension is equivalent to defeatism. For, in such a long period of time, the Communists can gain ground—they can bring about disintegration on the political and economic fronts.

An alternative policy with teeth in it—and yet not war—is essential as a counter-strategy. It is needed as a leverage. Here is a plan that is suggested as a basis for American and Allied policy:

1. European peoples—and that means primarily West Germany, France, Italy and Great Britain—are obsessed with the notion that the west can "negotiate" a way out of the present dilemma by some kind of conference with Soviet Russia either at the foreign minister level or through heads of states.

This sentiment cannot be brushed aside in Washington as irrelevant, nor can it be answered by pointing to the long-drawn-out talks at Punmunjom as an example of what happens when one "negotiates" with the Communists. A four-power conference with Russia, therefore, is essential if only to demonstrate once and for all that the Communists are not sincere or to give them a real opportunity to make an agreement if they are sincere.

2. ALL CONFERENCES with Russia in the last several years have been entered into by the Western Allies without any leverage except the threat of military force to be used at some far-distant date. This doesn't scare the Russians because they know that it will be years before the European defense army or the NATO forces are organized adequately for defense and that, besides, they will never be used to enforce agreements on diplomatic questions.

3. The need for a counter-strategy that has in it a powerful leverage is paramount. Such a counter-operation should be planned, and its major purposes made public coincidentally with the summoning of a four-power conference so that, if the conference fails, Russia will know that the plan would go into effect.

4. The plan would require Allied solidarity and a pooling of economic and financial resources in much the same way as was accomplished during World War II.

As a first step, a coordinated international board should be authorized to buy up east-west trade, so that not a ton of goods or merchandise of any kind would go to any iron curtain countries, whether the items are strategic or non-strategic. To such countries as Sweden and Finland or Switzerland, which have more or less direct access to iron curtain countries, the same rules against reshipment as prevailed in World War II would be put into effect.

No producers in the western countries would lose money, as all surplus production normally destined for iron curtain countries would be bought up by the pool. It is estimated that only a billion dollars a year is needed to finance this phase of the plan. Surpluses could be resold at low prices in "point four" countries, so that some of the subsidy money could be recovered. If products like timber needed by Britain are normally too expensive to transport from Canada or the United States, the international agency set up for the purpose of prohibiting East-West trade should pay the necessary subsidy to enable Britain to avoid buying timber from Russia.

5. The Western countries would form a pool to buy up all the raw materials in the world, including rubber, tin, copper and other essential products, and arrange to pay a stabilized price for a period of about three years. Stockpiles for war now need such materials. Allocation of raw materials would be with an eye toward strengthening the economies of the Western democracies by creating employment as well as toward preventing any of these materials from reaching the iron curtain areas.

6. THE ESTABLISHMENT of a world-wide inspection system to determine if ships of any nationality are engaged in fraudulent or conspiratorial transactions. International inspection would be carried on by designated Allied officers at the Panama Canal, the Suez Canal and at the approaches to any ports where it was suspected that fraudulent cargoes were being sent.

While this approximates a "blockade," it need not resemble it any more than the Communist inspection systems which stop everything at the borders of such countries as Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria, Romania—with all of whom the United States and the other Western countries are at peace and not involved in a "state of war."

7. Such a world-side system of inspection would entail lots of red tape—Russian style—and American and British and French officials who have watched the intermittent Berlin blockades probably are well versed in such obstructive tactics as would be necessary to seal off iron curtain countries, just as Russia today is already sealing off East Germany and the satellites.

8. Certain exceptions to the shipment of goods to iron curtain countries could be made—that is, for example, munitions needed by freedom-loving elements ready to begin underground movements of resistance and liberation on their own initiative.

THE ENTIRE PLAN envisages something dynamic instead of a futile policy of endless waiting. It wouldn't be expensive in a relative sense, because, if it brought Russia to terms, it would actually cut down present-day budgets.

It would have to be a severe policy and with it rearmament, of course, would have to go on. The plan will be assailed as a possible provocation to Russia to go to war, but the Soviets have been given enough provocation in the formation of the NATO alliance and the European defense army, and there is less risk in a bold economic strategy than in a policy resting solely on a military threat. It is a plan that provides a counter-strategy, and at present the Western powers offer little of that except threats of war.

A third world war can be prevented by economic measures if the will to prevent a large-scale war and to make big sacrifices are seriously manifested by the peoples of all the Allied countries.

We've Had It Before

Communist negotiators at Panmunjom were reportedly startled when our spokesmen suddenly got up and walked out the other day. Our men simply said they were tired of Red stalling and propaganda and were declaring a three-day recess.

Apparently Communist propaganda has a drugging effect on those who utter it. Infatuated by the sound of their own voices, the Reds seem unable to believe other people don't care to listen.

It's very likely a deeper thing, too, than just the boredom of the moment. The free world has been listening to Russian Bunkum for seven long years. The fatigue we feel in these circumstances is cumulative. It's a weariness we may never got over.

"Oh, Boy! What I Could Do With All That Stuff!"

The Convention Keynoter

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

The keynoter at most national conventions is a distinguished politician who is selected, generally as temporary chairman, to pep up the delegates on opening day. While he must be an orator with a great voice and forensic powers, his speech is rarely a literary masterpiece.

George E. Sokolsky

Often the keynoter is one who might have been a candidate had fate not been unkind. He is generally popular enough to attract a good audience for the Monday night opening.

The Democrats have this year selected Governor Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts as their keynoter. He is an amiable Democrat and will make a routine speech supporting the Truman administration, defending its policies and denouncing the Republicans. It will be such a speech as Truman might have made himself, but more oratorical, with a flavor of humor.

THE REPUBLICANS have chosen as their keynoter one of the greatest orators of our time and a personality that evokes emotions, pro and con, as no other American does, General Douglas MacArthur. Unquestionably his speech will be the high note of the convention. The last person to address any political gathering of this nature, whose oratory equalled MacArthur's, was William Jennings Bryan.

In spite of the fact that many men live by making speeches, the masterful orators are few. Daniel Webster, Robert Ingersoll, William Jennings Bryan, Douglas MacArthur are among the few. Abraham Lincoln was not an orator, although his Gettysburg address lives as a literary classic. Bryan's "Cross of Gold' speech, wonderful as it was at the moment, is no longer even in the "speech' books, as they nowadays call exercises in elocution.

Douglas MacArthur's "Old Soldiers Never Die" speech will not be forgotten by this generation, as his "farewell to the Army' speech is often referred to as an example of significant oratory. John Gunther write that General Eisenhower helped to prepare that speech. A stylistic comparison between any of MacArthur's work and Eisenhower's Abilene speech surely proves that MacArthur rolls his own.

So, at this opening night of the Republican convention, Douglas MacArthur will have the opportunity of a lifetime to use his literary and dramatic abilities to start the convention with such fervor as only Billy Sunday could arouse among the penitent. It could outlast the convention and bring unity in support of an American ideal which would capture the imagination of millions who will listen on radio and television.

TWO OBJECTIONS were made to Douglas MacArthur:

1. He is a Taft supporter;
2. He is on the active list in the Army and therefore should not engage in politics.

As to point 1, it has been customary for the keynoter to deal with issues, not with personalities. It is not likely that General MacArthur will break that precedent. In fact, at one convention, Mrs. Clare Luce spoke in favor of Senator Vandenberg before the nomination time and it was bitterly resented. General MacArthur will not risk such damage to himself or his cause.

Actually, there are no neutrals in the Republican party today. It would have to be an Eisenhower or a Taft man. The three possibilities, in terms of rank and leadership, who were available were Senator Eugene D. Millikin, Herbert Hoover or Douglas MacArthur. Millikin and Hoover bowed out in favor of MacArthur. Both will speak, however; Hoover on Tuesday night; Millikin when he introduces the platform.

POINT 2 is a matter that can only boomerang against those who want to make something out of it. General MacArthur is on active service, as a five-star general, by atc of Congress as a gesture of gratitude of a nation for services rendered. So are General Eisenhower and General Marshall and a few others. Unless called upon to do a chore for the government, they can engage in any activity they like under the law. If anyone tried to reconcile the act creating them with the Hatch Act, he would probably find himself involved in litigation up to the Supreme ourt.

On the other hand, President Truman could assign General MacArthur to duty somewhere, even back to Korea, but it would look like persecution and not a little mean, and would cost votes in the election.

Also, General Eisenhower was, for many years, General MacArthur's military secretary and subordinate and he could not speak ill of "the old man" without considerable loss of dignity.

So, General MacArthur will make his keynote speech and nobody will gainsay him in advance.

Light Summer Reading

By TRUMAN TWILL

Comes real summer weather and ennui follows close behind—a fact recognized by a large number of seasonal adjustments.

These deal in one way or another with lightness—light summer reading, light clothing, light colors, light covers on the bed and lighter lunches.

It is assumed that human beings are in no condition when the temperature rises to figure out tough, heavy, hot matters—and there is no quarrel with that assumption. But the situation is ironic.

Because summer is the atmosphere in which human beings in the United States must deal with one of the toughest, heaviest, hottest maters of their lives—president-making and national policy.

What must happen, therefore, is a light frame of mind for dealing with a very momentous situation And while it is possible to go too far in that direction, it apparently makes things easier for everybody concerned.

For example, when one presidential hopeful charges that other hopefuls are playing dirty—which is a tough, heavy, hot accusation—a light frame of mind suggests that what the hopeful really means is that he has been outslickered at his own game.

Or when a hopeful contends bitterly that a rival is appealing to the worst instincts of the electorate, a light frame of mind reveals that what he means is that the other guy thought of it first, darn him to pieces, and spoiled the fun.

When everything is going according to plan, in politics, it means that the other side has just thrown three monkey wrenches and a handful of bolts into the gears and things are in a double-ring-tailed mess.

When it is alleged that the other character is getting careless about the truth, the message conveyed to those who believe in enjoying politics as well as being decisive about public issues is that the other character has scored a bullseye with a barbed dart and had better wear an iron vest the next time he walks down the street. Campaign gobblydegook, itself, is a campaign issue.

When one side in a political tussle complains that the other side is throwing around too much money, that means the other side has built a pipeline into some source of contributions which the first side had intended to tap for its own benefit.

And last but not least, when the cry is heard that the only way to save the American way of life is to vote for X, implying that Y is un-American, the real message conveyed is that X's way of life is being threatened by Y's way of life, which consists of wanting to get X's job.

If president-making always took place in winter, the same things would be said, with the same meanings. But in winter the people would be easier to fool. In summer, when human beings are looking on the light side of things, political guff is like the whipped cream on fruit salad—something to be brushed aside to see what's underneath.

Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Keynote Speech

Ladies and Gentlemen: We are assembled here to nominate a candidate for the presidency through the free choice of delegates and without undue influence. We meet to carry out the will of the people in the true democatic processes under which each and every candidate has an equal chance and enjoys no unfair advantage. . . . It says here! I recently declared that old soldiers never die. I now admit it can all depend on the balloting. Not long ago you heard me say that they just fade away. Those words are from an old song. Tonight we are singing a new number.

Old soldiers never die; they just switch to politics. I admit my previous contention that they fade away, but we are now on televison, and, with millions getting the complete picture, there would be no point denying this is a nonfoding year and that a dim-out can be optional. My purpose is to sound the keynote, not to announce the lineup, and name the pitchers. As I look into the faces of these honorable delegates I see written on them the questions "Was this trip necessary?" Was my coming here a good idea for the party, for you for your candidate or for me? Ladies and gentlemen, it all comes under the head of a calculated risk.

I came here for one purpose, the good of my country. I will go to any lengths on its behalf always excepting a hearty response to the cry "Three cheers for Harry Truman!" There are limits to everything. I am glad to see my old friend Herbert Hoover here. With both of us present, the Waldorf could do no more. Ladies and gentlemen it has been charged that I am the foe of one leading candidate here and the stout champion of another. This is predicated upon the observation that I do not wear an "I Like Ike" button. I have nothing against the general. He was on my staff and I remember him vaguely. The face is familiar but I don't recall the ambition. I do not hesitate, however, to say that he is a good general, too.

I am not here as an advocate of Sen. Taft and all insinuations that I have, as a five-star general, made an unconditional surrender to Ohio are false. My desire is to see the best man win. If I say anything that may seem to favor one man over another, you will excuse it please, always remembering the old saying that all is fair in love, war and political conventions. The Republican party may be crossing the Rubicon this year. Let it not meet with the trouble I had crossing the Yalu under the Democrats. There is no certainty about the nominee here. (Cries of "wanna bet?") Lightning may strike some candidate who is not at the moment very high in the ratings. (A cry of are you hinting?")

A messenger comes to the platform with a telegram and announces it's from Washington. Gen. MacArthur puts it aside unopened for the time being.

Joe Martin—Don't you think it might be important?

Gen. MacArthur—No. I am now in an operation from which no Democrat can recall me!

VANISHING AMERICANISMS

"I gave you a dollar and got no change."
"Shave and haircut: 40 cents."
"Waiter, what's on the seventy-five cent shore dinner?"

Marine Corps To Be Larger

Compromise Bill Gives Service Bigger Voice

WASHINGTON (AP) — A group named to iron out differences in Senate and House bills has agreed to strengthen the Marine Corps and give it a bigger voice in military policy.

But the joint Senate-House committee discarded House-approved provisions to make the Marine commandant a permanent member of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and to set a minimum strength of 220,000 enlisted men for the Marines.

The compromise bill was worked out yesterday. It now goes back to both House and Senate for final action.

House Armed Services Committee officials said these were the main points of the agreement:

1. The Marine commandant would sit with the joint chiefs as a "co-equal" on matters affecting the Marines, with the same voice and same right of appeal as other members. He now is an adviser. The Senate bill proposed to give him a consultant status.

2. The maximum strength of the Marines would be 400,000 men, plus officers, and the proposed minimum would be eliminated because no other service has one. The ceiling has been approved by both houses.

3. For the first time, the law would specify the organization of the Marines into three combat divisions and three air wings. These would not necessarily be maintained at full strength continuously. House conferees originally proposed four divisions and four air wings.

Sen. Long (D-La), acting chairman of the Senate group, said the compromise plan would "insure that the Marine Corps will not be whittled down into small units, the size of a battalion or smaller."

The Senate passed a Marine bill last year. The House enlarged it with the controversial troop minimum and full Marine membership on the JCS, which led to opposition by some members and from the administration. The Senate-House conference to iron out differences was the result.

House sources predicted the compromise will be accepted by Congress and the administration.

State Tax On Cigarets, Soft Drinks Suggested

SANDUSKY, O. (AP)—State taxes on cigarets and soft drinks have been suggested to the Ohio Association of School Administrators as ways to help finance school construction.

The recommendations were reported Wednesday by Carl H. Shanks, superintendent of Clinton County schools and chairman of the Ohio Education Association's Legislative Planning Committee. He addressed the school administrators as they closed a two - day meeting in nearby Cedar Point.

Shank stressed the recommendations were not official proposals, but rather initial suggestions from school administrators and educators from throughout Ohio.

His report suggested one or more of the following taxes: A one-half cent or a one - cent tax on cigarets or a one - cent soft drink tax.

ATTORNEY DISBARRED

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — Louis A. Gertner, 45, of Columbus was disbarred for life Wednesday as an attorney in Ohio. A five-judge court unanimously found him guilty of offering Columbus Patrolman Paul E. Jordan a $50 bribe to change his testimony in four gambling cases.

Truman To Award Cpl. Rosser Medal

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman will personally decorate the first Ohioan to win the Medal of Honor in the Korean war.

Ohio congressmen told reporters today Army Cpl. Ronald E. Rosser, 22, of Crooksville, will receive the medal from Truman June 27 in the White House rose garden, traditional site for such ceremonies.

Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio) and Rep. Robert Secrest (D-Ohio) said they hope to attend.

The youthful infantryman killed at least 13 of the enemy last winter in one - man assaults against Red fortifications.

Lutherans Hear Talk On Biblical Gardens

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becknell were hosts to members of the Senior Choir of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church Monday evening at their home on E. 10th St.

Conductig the meeting was Mrs. Calvin Funk, president, who opened with a scripture text from Acts. "Gardens" was the evening's topic discussed by Miss Jeanette Hoch who told about the gardens of Eden, Gethsemane, Babylon and present day.

A description of the site of the garden of Eden and the garden of Gethsemane was read by Miss Ruth Hoch, who also told about the Madonna Lily.

Having no choir director for the time being, members of the choir will furnish special numbers for Sunday worship services in the church. Al Ferko will direct the choir at rehearsal Wednesday, July 2, and Thursday, July 10. The praying of "The Lord's Prayer" brought the meeting to a close.

Mrs. Becknell, assisted by Mrs. Albert Ryser, served lunch on the lawn at the Becknell home. The choir will not meet during July and August so the next meeting is Sept. 15 at the home of Mrs. Funk on the Goshen Rd. Husbands and wives of choir members will be guests.

Methodist Class Sees Colored Slides

The Methodist pastor and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swogger, were hosts to members of the Methodist Wesleyan Class Wednesday evening at their home on E. State St. Class teacher is Mrs. Guy E. Byers.

Mrs. Frank Stoerkel conducted the business session on the lawn of the Swogger home and the group later went inside to see colored slides shown by W. H. Matthews. New England in the autumn and lovely views of the west were shown and described by the guest speaker.

Mrs. Frederick Koenreich, a member of the social committee for the evening, introduced Mr. Matthews. Others entertaining were Mrs. Fred Capel, chairman, Mrs. Russell Smith, Mrs. Paul Patterson, Mrs. C. H. Waldron, Mrs. H. R. Widmyer and Mrs. Melvin York.

An expert on birds, William Baker, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the class Sept. 17. Mrs. F. C. Troll will be the hostess at her home at 1580 E. Third St.

Fellowship Class Has Country Club Outing

Sixty members of the Methodist Fellowship Class, their families and guests enjoyed the outing Wednesday evening at the Salem Country Club. Walter Everett is class teacher.

Following the picnic supper, the group spent an informal evening with swimming and games. Arranging the event were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Crothers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kaminsky and Mr. and Don Aubill. The next meeting will be July 16 at the Country Club.

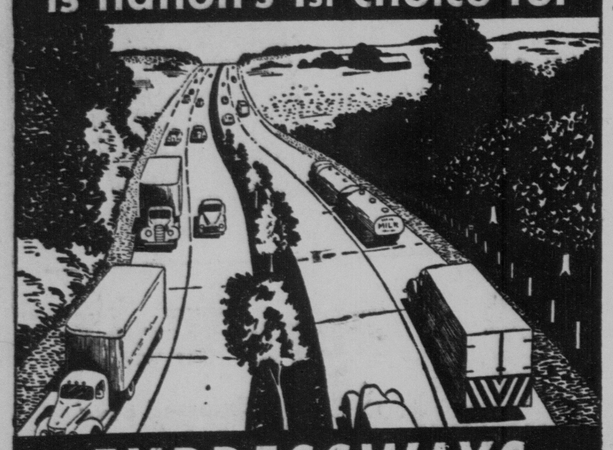
Why CONCRETE is nation's 1st choice for



EXPRESSWAYS

Significantly, portland cement concrete is the overwhelming choice for America's rapidly-growing mileage of expressways because concrete is inherently safe. It is skid-resistant, wet or dry. Its natural light color increases visibility at night.

because concrete is economical. It usually costs less to build than other pavements of equal load-carrying capacity. It has long life, costs much less to maintain and cuts vehicle operating costs.

because concrete is satisfying to drive on. Its smooth-riding, even surface improves car control, reduces nervous strain, expedites traffic flow.

It's your money that pays for pavements.
Get the most for your money.
Insist on highways built with concrete.

Kefauver Feels Sure He'll Win

Senator Says Taft, Ike Both Isolationists

CLEVELAND (AP) — Confident he will win the Democratic nomination, Sen. Estes Kefauver says if either Eisenhower or Taft reach the White House, isolationism will dominate the Republican party.

Scheduled for appearances in Detroit today, the Tennessean was here yesterday for a speech and a round of news conferences.

The Taft-Hartley Act was his main target in his address at the convention of the CIO Communications Workers of America.

Kefauver said he might be nominated on the first ballot, but it was more likely to be the fifth or sixth ballot. He estimated he has more than 300 convention delegates committed to him. For nomination, 616 votes are required.

The senator told reporters he thought Gen. Eisenhower's candidacy 'is weaker today than when he came back from Europe.'

He said he was "surprised to find him so conservative on domestic issues," and declared the general and Sen. Taft of Ohio agree on the Taft-Hartley Act.

In his convention talk he said he doubted whether the general shares "the isolationist sentiments of most of the leaders of his party."

"But I don't think that will do Gen. Eisenhower much good," he went on. "No matter what Republican is in the White House, the Republican isolationists will dominate the party."

7 Elkton Children Get Pre-School Examinations

LISBON—Seven youngsters were examined Wednesday afternoon at Elkton in the first of three preschool clinics scheduled this week by the Columbiana County Health Department.

Another clinic is being held this afternoon at Summitville and one Friday afternoon at Wayne. The series of 19 clinics started in April and will end next week.

Miss Laura Clark, supervisor of nurses, said the department will have a nurse at Firestone Farms near Columbiana Friday when a delegation of Texans will tour the farms.

Red Cross Bloodmobile Sets Up In Lisbon

LISBON—The Red Cross Bloodmobile set up at 1 a.m. today at the Legion Home to begin the collection of at least 125 pints of blood.

Two-hundred area persons were pledged in the first of three visits scheduled here this year. Another visit is set for August.

The group arrived from Pittsburgh with a staff of 11, and will be assisted by 35 volunteer workers.

U.S. Cost Of Living Nears Record Level

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government's latest cost-of-living barometer moved up today under pressure of rising food and rent costs to within a tiny fraction of the record high reached last January.

The living-cost index, measuring prices of food, clothing, shelter and a host of other things climbed during the month ending May 15 two-tenths of one per cent to 189 per cent of the 1935-39 average. That is 4.1 per cent over the mark of 18 months ago when price and wage controls took effect. The peak figure last January was 189.1.

A million and a quarter railworkers will get an automatic two-cent hourly wage boost as a result of the latest increase in living costs. Their work contract ties wages to the cost-of-living index and adjustments are made each three months.

Another 100,000 wage earners in textiles, aircraft and oil refining industries also get at least a one-cent boost.

Leading the over-all living-cost rise was a boost of four tenths of one per cent in rent across the country. The price of food at the grocery store moved up three tenths of one per cent.

But the price of clothing, of fuel and electricity and of house furnishings all dropped fractionally.

Marion Sparks St. Louis Win

Top Red Sox, 4-3; Yanks Whip Tigers

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

If Marty Marion is handling his St. Louis Browns with kid gloves, it seems to be the right system.

Since Marion took over as Rogers Hornsby's successor, the Brownies have won five of eight, including their last four in a row. Only eight games off the pace in the muddled American League race, they still can raise hob with the leaders.

Marion's secret weapon appears to be shortstop Marty Marion. With Marion playing shortstop — not just appearing as a pinch runner or a part-time player — the Browns' record is 21-18. Without Marty, it's 6-13.

The old master came through last night with one of his specials—a drooping single that barely dropped safely along the right field line. Marion's hit followed Dick Kryhoski's leadoff double in the last of the ninth to give St.Louis a 4-3 win over Boston.

In addition to knocking home the winning run, Marion chipped in on two of three St.Louis double plays that helped Duane Pillette get home with his sixth win. Pillette scattered 11 hits while the Browns made nine off rookie Bill Henry add up to victory.

Up front in the league, the New York Yankees widened their lead to 2½ games over the Red Sox by turning on the home run power at Detroit in a 10-6 crusher. Gene Woodling, Billy Martin and Yogi Berra blasted Art Houtteman, the ex-soldier, for his eighth straight knockout.

Washington shoved slumping Cleveland down a peg to fourth place, behind idle Chicago, with a 3-2 decision for Spec Shea, his first win since May 16 and a six-hitter at that.

Brooklyn and New York continued to pull away from the field in the National as the Dodgers nipped Chicago, 6-5, scoring the winning run in the 10th without a hit, and the Giants thumped Pittsburgh, 5-2, with Bobby Thomson rapping four hits, including two homers.

Solly Hemus and Stan Musial teamed up on the offense while Joe Presko set down the Phillies with five hits for a 7-1 St.Louis Card victory that pulled them up even with the .50 mark.

Cincinnati knocked off the Boston Braves in both ends of a twi-night doubleheader, 7-6 and 3-1. In the second game, Kenny Raffensberger overcame 11-strikeout pitching by Warren Spahn to cop his eighth.

Philadelphia and Chicago were idle in the American League.

TOUGH GUY—Bill McGowan clenches his fists and grimaces in the manner of a prize fighter going into action. Suspended Marty Marion, shortstopping new manager of the Browns, found it dooesn't pay to carry an argument with the senior umpire too far.

Skippin' Around

By SKIP GREENISEN

Excursion tickets for the Cleveland-Boston doubleheader will be available to Salem district fans until the train pulls out at 8:30 Sunday morning, Excursion Chairman Tony Masinando said today.

Nearly 500 tickets have been sold for the second annual American Legion sponsored event. Last year the same number attended the twin bill at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium.

The ducats for the two games between the Tribesmen and the Beantowners of Boston may be purchased only at Fisher's News Agency until train time.

Masinando stated many good seats still remained for the doubleheader. The excursion chairman said the Legion plans to stage another excursion next year if this year's outing is successful.

Another eventful happening Sunday will be the soap box derby. Derby officals expect 51 entries for the first annual running slated for Blackburn Hill on the Damascus Rd. west of Salem.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce and Parker Chevrolet Co. with the cooperation of other Salem merchants who are sponsoring the event are expecting a large turnout to watch the younsters race westward on the hill.

Rufus Lide, Columbiana County fish and game warden, is going to clamp down on persons in this vicinity who may be capturing wild animals and keeping them as pets.

Lide is serving warning to anyone who possesses these young animals. He claims it is unlawful to possess the young wildlife and anyone with the same in his possession is subject to a $15 to $200 fine.

Lide reported many persons calling him and asking permission to retain the animals. However, the warden says that no such permission can be granted during the off season. Capturing the animals during their open season and keeping them is quite permissible though.

Following their loss last night to Springfield, the Salem Merchants will enjoy a three-game home stand during the next two weeks. The Chester Brantigam-managed combine will play hosts to East Liverpool Sunday, Negley the following Wednesday and Lisbon, only other team to beat them, the next Sunday before having an open date.

—:—

The Hot Stove League is expected to get underway sometime next week, Ed Bloor, appointed leader of the new organization, announced today.

Three teams are to be formed in the Salem area with another squad coming from Washingtonville to form a four-team loop.

Practice for the 12- to 15-year-olds will be held Saturday afternoon at 8 p.m. at Centennial Park. The initial workout Monday brought out 35 interested youngsters and more are expected for the workout Saturday.

Boros Declines PGA Invitation

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Julius Boros' withdrawal from the PGA championship tournament may have set the stage for this year's dream golf match.

It would pair the winners of the PGA and the National Open.

Boros' surprise decision to stay out of the Louisville scramble after he had accepted a special invitation to participate was followed by a remark that he would like to meet the winner.

The Mid Pines, N. C., shotmaker won the Open title at Dallas last week. The PGA waived its apprenticeship rule to invite him to participate in its championship tournament.

Boros accepted and then declined with the explanation that because he still has three years to go on the required five-year apprenticeship his participation might stir up dissension in PGA ranks.

Before leaving Louisville, however, he expressed a willingness to meet the PGA winner "any time and any place."

His suggestion fell on interested PGA ears. The ruling body is expected to discuss the proposal this week and make a decision.

Rusty Callow, coach of the Navy crew, has been active in Boy Scout work for 27 years. He holds the Silver Bear award, one of the highest scouting honors.

Locals Acquire Second Defeat

Six-Run Initial Inning Costly

Allowing six runs in the first inning, the Salem Merchants took their second defeat of the season last night at Centennial Park, 7-3, as they completed half of their games in the Columbiana County League.

Four big errors in the initial frame along with a couple scratch singles produced six markers for Springfield and provided enough margin for them to down the locals.

Salem scored single runs in the second, third and seventh innings but never threatened the Springfielders in the seven-inning affair. The latter added a tally in the fourth inning for their seven-run total.

Ten bingles were collected from the offerings of Dick Wyss and Dave Kachner and seven Merchant errors aided the Springfield nine. The locals managed to get just five hits. Jimmy Laughlin rapping a triple and Dempsey Balsley a double for the only extra base blows.

However, the Merchant nine stil remains atop the county loop. The locals hold a 10-2 record for the half-completed season. Lisbon, 2½ games out, is holding second place with a 6-3 record. East Liverpool's Riverview Florists are in third position with four victories and the same number of losses.

Sunday the locals play host to East Liverpool in a 2:30 contest at Centennial Park. Jim Cosgarea is slated to do the mound chores for the locals. He possesses a 3-1 record for the season.

Easter Sad, Can't Get Out Of Slump

CLEVELAND (AP)—He looks like the saddest guy in the world.

His once impressive batting average is skirting dangerously near the .200 mark. He's down to seventh place in the batting order. And the fans often boo him when he goes to the plate.

It's a rarity these days when Luke Easter breaks out his sunny smile.

For two hours before Wednesday night's game with the Washington Senators, the big Cleveland Indians first baseman practiced batting against anyone who would throw to him. Then, in the game, he got just one walk to show for four trips to the plate.

Luke claims he's feeling all right and that he's following the ball well. But he doesn't get the hits.

Indians Possess Lemon-Aid; Need Plate Power To Aid Lemon

SPTS—INDIANS POSES

What the Cleveland Indians really need to get rolling again is nothing stronger than Lemon-aid.

Actually the one item missing from a possible Tribe coming-out party is a little batting assistance behind their ace pitcher, Bob Lemon who has already clinched the title of Hardluck Hurler of 1952.

During the first third of the current campaign, the Cleveland sinker-ball specialist fell heir to an even dozen starts and, with better defensive support and a normal batting attach behind him, could conceivable be 12 and instead of an almost unbelievable 5 and 6. In that period he worked a fraction more than 106 innings and allowed an average of exactly 2.39 earned runs per game, a figure which becomes little short of brilliant when it is realized that not since 1946 has the American League ERA leader finished with a lower one.

Yet, despite that remarkable stingy yield, Lemon's won and lost record is well below that of more than a score of characters named Joe. Actually, with the support he's gotten, it's something of a miracle that he's managed to win as many as five games. Two of them came by 1-0 scores while a third required a ninth inning rally before he came out on top 3-2.

BUT AT LEAST those were victories! Tough as they were, they were nothing compared to some of his defeats. Who else in the majors has pitched three 4-hitters and failed to win any of them? Yet that's just what happened to Lemon. Two of them he lost by 1-0 and 2-0 counts while, in the third, he'd been yanked for a pinch hitter before the Indians managed a victory in extra innings. Not as dreary, but equally disappointing were 2-1 defeat in 13 innings, a 3-2 setback on a pair of boots and a 6-4 loss when his relief gave up a homer with two men on.

In one stretch of 55 innings, the equivalent of more than six full games, his teammates combined futilely for a microscopic total of just seven runs. Still, he made five of those runs stand up for three victories.

Actually, hard luck streaks such as Lemon is going through are not new to baseball. It's all part of the game and the Indian's brilliant veteran of four All-Star classics takes it in stride. But he's certainly entitled to wonder when it will end because it really began way back in last September when Cleveland was fighting a losing battle for th 1951 pennant. At that time, Lemon presided over the burial of the Indians' last-ditch hopes as an unearned run cost him a 1-0 defeat in Washington and Phil Rizzuto's memorable squeeze bunt upset him 2-1 in New York.

Indians Drop To 4th Place, Lose To Nats

CLEVELAND (AP)—For the first time this season, the Cleveland Indians were down in fourth place in the American League today.

With 4,379 barbers watching for free, the trimming took place Wednesday night as the Washington Senators shaved the Tribe 3-2. The loss set a number of season records for the Indians — mostly bad.

On the bright side of the picture was Al Rosen. He batted in the cleanup spot for the first time and homered in both Cleveland runs in the eighth inning.

On the other hand, it's Cleveland's longest losing streak, five games. And Mike Garcia's defeat marked the first time all members of the team's Big Four pitching staff have gone down in succession.

The team is just two percentage points behind the Chicago Cubs, .544 to .542, and three and a malf games behind the leading New York Yankees.

Rosen's 12th homer drove in Larry Doby who had walked. Rosen, with a single in the sixth, and Bob Avila who got two singles, were the only Tribesmen to hit safely twice.

Cleveland threatened in the sixth with singles by Avila and Rosen and a walk by Ray Boone which filled the bases. But Luke Easter grounded out, retiring the side. Bob Lemon, batting for reliefer Lou Brissie in the ninth, got a double, but was left stranded on second.

The Senators got one run in the first inning. Eddie Yost singled and Earl Rapp forced him, going to third on a single by Jackie Jensen. Rapp scored on Mickey Vernon's long fly.

Yost homered in the second, scoring Mickey Grasso who had doubled.

Garcia yielded 11 hits in the seven frames he hurled. It was his fourth defeat against nine victories. Frank Shea (4-2) limited the Indians to six hits.

Early Wynn (7-5) pitches for Cleveland today as the Indians try to gain their first victory from the three - game series. Conrado Marrero (5-2) will pitch for the Senators.

Cleveland has signed a Detroit scholastic outfielder and three collegians for duty with its farm clubs.

Considered the best catch was 18-year-old Frank Tanana, a right-handed hitter who helped St. Andrew Parochial School win the Detroit city championship this spring. He reports to Green Bay of the Class D Wisconsin State League.

Billy Harrell, a 23-year-old Negro outfielder from Sienna College, made his debut Tuesday night with Reading, Pa., of the Class A Eastern League.

The other two are Louis Kranz, 22, of the University of Illinois and Wilmette, Ill., a righthanded outfielder; and Danny Murphy, 21, a shortstop from Birmingham, Ala., and the University of Mississippi. They go to the Class B Cedar Rapids team in the Three I League.

Hine Motor Loses Benefit

Pittsburgh Wins, 9-3; Salem Girls Lose, 15-6

A big, six-run inning for the Pittsburgh Kenn Buicks allowed the latter outfit to gain a 9-3 decision over the Hine Motor last night at Kelley Field in a benefit game played for Twila Myers.

With the locals getting nine hits and the Buicks managing 11 bingles the two teams staged a competitive game until the seventh frame when the Pittsburgh nine rallied for six runs, including three home runs.

Viglie, Neilson and Pitcher Tabor smacked long blasts over the centerfield fence. Viglio also rapped a blast over the outfield fence in the sixth frame.

Glen Mercer and John Zines allowed the Pittsburgh nine 11 bingles in the nine inning affair.

In the preliminary contest the Salem All-Star girls combine was trounced by the Boardman Boosters, 15-6. The Boosters garnered eight runs in the first inning and managed three-run rallies in the third and fifth frames. They also added a marker in the seventh frame.

The locals tallied a run in the first frame, two in the third and a trio of markers in the fifth frame but never threatened the Boardman lead.

Add six point.

Gajda Paces PGA Golfers With Early 66

LOUISVILLE (AP)—They've played the PGA Championship on all kinds of courses since its inception in 1916 and they don't toughen them up with extra traps, jungles of rough or superslick greens as they do for the Open.

The result is the kind of scoring that took place over Louisville's Big Spring course yesterday when they turned loose 137 of golf's best professional shotmakers to try for the 63 places in the match play brackets.

One of the "unknowns," tall lean Bob Gajda, went out early in the day and posted a 6-under-par of 6. The rest threatened that score and the course record all day but couldn't beat either.

There were three 67s, five 68s and three 69s and going into today's second 18-hole qualifying round it looked as if the ones who couldn't match par for 36 holes wouldn't get into the first of tomorrow's "sudden death" matches.

The arrow indicating the 64th man on the scoreboard pointed at the middle of the 73s at the end of the first day.

Among those who looked as if they might not make it were Ed (Porky) Oliver, runnerup to Julius Boros for the Open title last week; Denny Shute, the last player to win two PGA titles in succession 15 years ago; and Charlie Bassler, a giant-killing semi-finalist in last year's tourney. They all had 75s. Former Open Champion Lew Worsham and Buck White shot 76s and Skip Alexander a 79.

Behind Gajda, a 35-year-old assistant pro at Detroit's Oakland Hills Club, came two tournament stars, Cary Middlecoff and Dutch Harrison, and stay-at-home Henry Williams Jr., who went to the PGA final two years ago. They had the 67's.

Yesterday's STARS

Batting, Bobby Thomson, Giants —Hit two home runs and two singles to drive in three runs for a perfect day as New York downed Pittsburgh, 5-2.

Pitching, Spec Shea, Senators—Ended month - long winless stretch by dumping Cleveland into fourth place with six-hitter, 3-2.

Castellani Wins Split Decision

CHICAGO (AP)—After picking up a check for $3,591.55, which will hardly cover expenses, for defeating Johnny Bratton Wednesday night, rugged Rocky Castellani beat his chest for bigger game and bigger money today.

Castellani, a free - swinging middleweight who left the Luzerne, Pa., coal fields to seek championship pugilistic fortunes, now is yelling for a fight with Rocky Graziano.

"That one will draw the money,' said business - like Castellani after taking a 10 - round split decision.

Castellani outweighed Bratton 156 pounds to 149 and defeated him for the second time in three months.

"I thought I won,' said Bratton. "He can't punch, but he's big and strong. If we both weighed the same, I would take him inside four rounds."

Casetllani required two stitches to close a gash in his left eyebrow and used several buckets of shaved ice to take the swelling out of a badly bruised right hand.

The fight, with no knockdowns, was about even up to the 10th when Castellani battered Bratton with both fists.

Brown University will become the eighth member of the Eastern Intercollegiate Basketball League at the start of the 1953-54 season.

Hialeah race track has been assigned Jan. 16 through March 3 for its 40-day horse racing meeting next winter.

Musial Most Popular In All-Star Balloting

CHICAGO (AP)—Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinals' slugging outfielder, today increased his lead as the most popular vote getter in the All - Star baseball poll.

Musial's total rose to 194,787. This gave him an edge of 4,465 over Dom DiMaggio, Boston Red Sox center fielder, and 8,633 more than the erstwhile popularity leader, left fielder Hank Sauer of the Chicago Cubs.

The nationwide poll of fans to determine the starting lineups for the All - Star game in Philadelphia July 8 will end at midnight June 27.

Although the Cornell varsity crew hasn't won the Intercollegiate Regatta since 1930, the Big Red still leads in number of victories with 15.

State Patrol Urges Less Automobile Speed

Greater automobile speed means greater chance of death.

That warning to motorists was given today by Cpl. E. W. Mallery of the State Highway Patrol's Salem station.

The State Highway Patrol and the National Safety Council this month are stressing "Speed Control," the June theme in their continuing program for traffic safety.

Cpl. Mallery pointed out that persons injured in a traffic accident at 60 miles an hour or more are eight times more likely to die of their injuries than persons injured at 20 miles an hour or less.

"The human body can be literally smashed to death in accidents at high speeds," he emphasized.

In reminding motorists of the danger of driving too fast, the State Highway Patrol calls attention to its traffic safety slogan for June—"Speed Kills...Take it easy!"

convention July 7 in Chicago calls for 604.

10 Delegates To Be Voted

The last 10 GOP delegates will be named in Illinois Monday at a Springfield convention. All are expected to go for Taft, although Eisenhower forces are seeking an even - steven split.

Utah's 14 delegates Wednesday signed a letter reaffirming their support of Taft. The action was aimed at quieting a commotion stirred by GOP State Chairman A. Pratt Kesler's comment that six of the group might back Eisenhower on the second ballot.

The Republican National Committee, meanwhile, is scheduled to hold hearings starting July 1 in Chicago on formal contests involving 72 delegates in Texas and six other states. This formidable total could swing a tight nomination race either way.

Taft and Eisenhower backers take opposing sides in the disputes, almost certain to wind up on the convention floor.

The battle in Texas was particularly hot. Taft people said 32 of Texas' 38 contested delegates were named in districts and, under party rules, were the concern of state party machinery, which is pro-Taft. Eisenhower's camp said all 38 contests required settlement on the national level.

The GOP National Committee Wednesday upheld this latter viewpoint.

Truman

used the Taft - Hartley act, the President said the union waited 99 days before striking and he was not sure the T-H law would work.

The T-H act permits a court order, good for 80 days, against a strike which imperils the national security.

A reporter asked if Truman was implying the union might not obey a Taft - Hartley injunction.

Truman said he was. Under questioning, he said that he believed they would work under seizure.

Truman commented on taxes one day after Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio declared he is willing to pledge "a straight 15 per cent cut in taxes" if he is elected president.

Meanwhile, in Denver, Dwight D. Eisenhower, locked in a hot battle with Taft for the Republican presidential nomination, said a tax reduction would be possible in about two years.

Truman said he still thinks the general is a nice guy, but he would not wish him any luck in his campaign for the presidency.

The President was asked whether in view of Eisenhower's attacks on the administration, in his campaign for GOP nomination, he still thinks the general is a nice guy.

Of course he does, the President said. And he added this is a free country and Eisenhower is entitled to his political opinions.

"Do you wish him luck?," he was pressed. The President laughed and said he couldn't say that, that Eisenhower is not running as a Democrat.

The President said he agreed with Averell Harriman that his victory in the District of Columbia Democratic primary this week was a clear - cut triumph for the New Deal and Fair Deal.

It couldn't have been anything else, he added.

President Truman also said this country will support Canada in building the St. Lawrence seaway despite Senate rejection of direct U. S. participation in the project.

By this news conference comment, he made clear that his administration will cooperate with Canada in every way it can.

The proposed seaway would open a route to the Great Lakes, via the St. Lawrence, for ocean-going vessels.

The Senate Wednesday rejected U. S. participation by 43-40 vote despite a last hour plea from Truman.

Files Suit To Gain Custody Of Daughter

LISBON—A hearing scheduled on a writ of habeas corpus filed Wednesday in Common Pleas Court by a father in an attempt to regain the custody of his daughter was postponed until today to allow additional witness to appear.

William H. Pittman of near Columbiana filed the action to regain custody of his seven-year-old daughter who is living with William Nell of the Peace-Valley-Negley Rd. He claims Nell is holding the child unlawfully.

Rt. 62 Paving Job Nears Completion

Route 62 (Albany Rd.) between Salem and the Columbiana-Mahoning County line is being resurfaced by the City Asphalt & Paving Co., Youngstown.

The firm, which was awarded the contract by the State Highway Department, is applying a two-inch layer of asphalt. The job is expected to be completed within a few days. One-way traffic has been maintained.

Meanwhile, the State Highway Department has opened bids at Columbus for construction of a new Canton bridge near Lisbon. The low bid appeared to be the $339,000 offer of the Hatcher Bros. Co. of Mingo.

Six Pay $60 In Fines On Patrol Charges

Fines totaling $60 were meted out in district courts recently to six motorists arrested by State Highway Patrolmen on various charges.

Fined were: H. F. Wykoff, 58, of 781 S. Lincoln Ave., speeding, $10; Edwin Senior, 47, of Beloit, failure to obey stop sign, $15; Tom Davidson, 32, of Cleveland, speeding, $15; William Printz, 32, of Pittsburgh, failure to obey stop sign, $5; Walter Hannon, 33, of New Castle, Pa., failure to obey stop sign, $5, and Walter Burnside, 34, of Warren, speeding, $10.

Sewer Addition Work Started

250 Texans To Tour Firestone Farms

COLUMBIANA—Work was begun yesterday on an extension of the sanitary sewer line from Pavilion 4, Firestone Park, a distance of about 850 feet, to a point east of the football stadium, the site chosen for proposed central rest rooms and locker rooms for football and baseball.

The park board may not be able to carry the project to completion this year, but decided to go ahead with the preliminary work. Street Commissioner Carl Spratt and his force began yesterday morning to prepare for the power shovel, which will begin the ditch in a few days.

Lewis Way, president of the Chamber of Commerce, was before council Tuesday evening with proposals of the chamber for surveys of the town and surrounding area to save waste by providing for a well ordered future growth, which will be a saving of money in the long run.

Proposed surveys by engineers would include prospective streets and sewer and water lines. He also spoke of the mimeograph and addressing machines the chamber is providing for community service at a nominal cost and which will be available to the municipality.

—o—

COUNCIL ADOPTED a recommendation of Olaf Todd, insurance man, that the insurance on city hall and the equipment garage and their contents be increased from $60,000 to $74,000 under a new insurance survey to take care of increased costs of replacements. The survey has changed Columbiana from Class 7 to Class 6, giving the town a lower insurance rate, with special reference to dwellings.

A new wage scale was set up for park employes. Four grades of life guards will receive 65, 75 and 85 cents and $1 an hour; bookkeeper and ticket seller, 45 cents an hour; attendants at ladies' and men's rooms, 40 cents an hour, and sanitary helper, 70 cents an hour.

Russell Iindsay of the Civil Defense Council requested that consideration be given the idea of an adequate alarm system. If Toronto and Youngstown were hit in an atomic raid, the present fire siren would be put out of commission.

Stanton Ave., property owners were present to discuss further a proposal for grading and seal-coating the street. A petition will be circulated to get a sufficient representation of the foot frontage.

—o—

ABOUT 250 TEXAS farmers, men and women, who are touring the country in a special train, will visit Firestone Farms here tomorrow morning. Their B. & O. train will arrive in Youngstown in the early morning and after breakfast at the Pick-Ohio Hotel, they will come to Columbiana in five busses chartered by the Firestone company.

The Texans will make a hay ride tour of the farms and will relax under the large Firestone tent that has been set up on the homestead lawn. The Columbiana school band will entertain. Before noon, they will leave in the chartered busses for Akron by way of Alliance. Their train will be at Akron to meet them.

Mayor W. A. Thomas and the board of affairs caution people to be sparing in their use of water, as the capacity of the softener is being overtaxed by the dry, hot weather .The water system has plenty of water at its disposal, but the softener is limited to its capacity of 200,000 gallons a day, while about 275,000 gallons is being used daily. Although the town has an unlimited water supply, users may find that they will have to be content with hard water if the present rate of consumption continues. The softener was provided as a W. P. A. project, but the rapid growth of the town since has made it and the disposal plant inadequate. Town officials are considering plans for enlargements.

Columbiana, Leetonia and Salem auxiliaries of American Legion posts are chartering a bus for the meeting of the Columbiana County Council of the auxiliaries at East Liverpool Monday evening. Firestone Post Auxiliary of Columbiana will go in private cars to take the bus at Leetonia. It is scheduled to leave Salem at 7 p. m. Transportation may be arranged by calling the secretary, Mrs. Robert Tieman, phone 2210.

Prune, Apple Pandowdy Good For Company

Company meals and spring fever, when they occur together are indeed a troublesome pair. But with a delightful and dependable dessert like this prune and dable pandowdy on hand, you are assured of both an enjoyable meal and time for leisurely visiting.

Prune and Apple Pandowdy

1 lb. dried prumes, cooked and pitted,
1 No. 2 can (2½ cups) ple apples,
1 cup prune juice,
1 tablespoon lemon juice,
½ cup unsulphured molasses,
½ teaspoon nutmeg,
½ teaspoon salt,
¼ cup sugar,
2 tablespoons butter or margarine,
1½ cups sifted enriched flour,
¾ teaspoons salt,
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder,
¼ cup shortening,
¾ cup milk.

Heat oven to 450 F. (very hot). Pour prunes and apples in a 9-by-9-by-3-inch casserole. Pour prune and lemon juice, molasses, nutmeg, salt and sugar over fruit; dot with butter or margarine.

Make dough for drop biscuit with remaining ingredients; drop in 9 mounds over fruit. Bake 25 minutes or until brown. Serve warm. Yields nine servings.

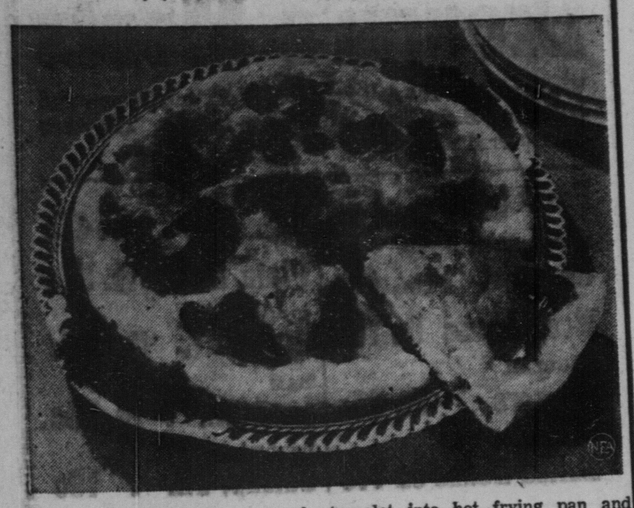
What A Pancake!



Try this giant-size pancake-omelet. It has all the delicate texture and "puffed up" appearance of an omelet, yet it is amazingly easy. Use a pancake reay-mix to simplify making and guarantee 100 per cent results.

Start it in a skillet on top of range, then place in the broiler for final browning. Add diced cooked bacon folded into the batter for extra flavor. Top with tart currant jelly. Serve with fresh buttered asparagus.

Hot broiled fruits such as halves of peaches or apricots are good accompaniments to the meal. Cut in wedges to serve for a perfect luncheon dish or make a pancake-omelet the main dish for a supper party.

Bacon Pancake Omelet

3 egg yolks, beaten
¾ cup milk
1 cup pancake ready-mix
3 egg whites, siffly beaten
1-3 cup diced cooked bacon drained

Combine beaten egg yolks and milk. Add all at once to pancake ready-mix, stirring lightly until fairly smooth. Fold in beaten egg whites and bacon.

Heat about one teaspoon butter in a 9 or 10-inch frying pan; pour omelet into hot frying pan and cook over direct heat until bottom of omelet is golden brown, about 3 minutes.

Place in broiler about 3 inches from source of heat and continue cooking until top is delicately browned. Top with currant jelly and serve immediatly.

The homespun flavor of buckwheat makes buckwheat waffles a favorite with the men in the family. Serve them with creamed ham, eggs or died beef for a satisfying luncheon. Five servings.

Buckwheat Waffles

Place all ingredients in medium-sized mixing bowl. Beat with rotary egg beater until batter is fairly smooth. Pour batter onto a not waffle iron. Bake until iron stops steaming. Five servings.

2 cups buckwheat ready-mix,
1-3 cup melted shortening
2 eggs
2 cups milk

VITAMIN C HEALTHFUL

Vitamin C helps to keep the tissues in our bodies in good condition. All the familiar citrus fruits are bountiful sources of this vitamin. Half a glass (four ounces) of orange or grapefruit juice, fresh or canned, goes far toward meeting a day's needs. The same is true of half a grapefruit or a whole orange. Other good sources of vitamin C. include canned or freash tomatoes and tomato juice, raw cabbage and green lettuce, fresh strawberries and cantaloup.

VIENNAS 'N BAKED BEANS

Spicy little canned Vienna sausages with baked beans make casserole news. Here's all you do. Place a can of baked beans in a baking dish, add catchup to your taste, then top with onion slices. Heat for 20 minutes, then arrange the sausages over the casserole and return to the oven for an additional 10 minutes.

QUICK VERSION

Corned beef and cabbage need no introduction. And here's a quick version of this famed team—canned corned beef and seven minute cabbage. Heat the beef throughly, then place it in the center of a large platter, and surround it with cabbage.

my mister and the kids fill up on fresh sausage

It sticks to their ribs and is easy on the budget. If you want pure pork sausage with that rich country style flavor, be sure it's...

A Different Pie

There is something new in the cooking world! It's a chiffon-like pie made by stirring ice cream into hot dissolved fruit flavored gelatin, then turning it into a baked pie crust. Fantastic? Nope, just seems too good to be true. But it is true.

Ruth Andre thought it up. She is director of the Pillsbury Home Service Center. Bursting with pride, she reminds us that speed of preparation is part of the surprise.

"Bake a flakey pie crust, using milk, whenever convenient. Then, a short time before dinner, prepare the parfait filling. Pour into the pie shell and let it stand in refrigerator for 20 minutes to a half hour," she says.

The variety of flavors of ice cream and fruit flavored gelatin is countless. And now with fresh berries and fruit coming along, you have even more colors and flavors for these spectacular new parfait pies.

Pineapple-Strawberry Parfait Pie

Pastry: One cup sifted all-purpose flour (if you use self-rising flour, omit salt), ½ teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup shortening, 2 to 3 tablespoons cold milk.

Sift flour and salt together. Cut in shortening until particles are the size of small peas. Sprinkle milk over mixture, tossing lightly with fork until dough is moist enough to hold together. Form into a ball. Roll out on floured board or pastry cloth to an 11-in. circle. Fit loosely into 9-inch pie pan. Gently pat out air pockets. Fold edge to form standing rim; flute. Prick crust with fork. Bake in hot oven 425 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Cool.

Pineapple-Strawberry Filling

One package lemon-flavored gelatin, 1¼ cups hot pineapple juice and water, 1 pint strawberry ice cream, 1 cup drained canned crushed pineapple.

Dissolve gelatin in hot liquid in 2-quart saucepan. Add ice cream by spoonfuls, stirring until melted. Then chill until thickened, but not set (25 to 30 minutes). Fold in drained pineapple. Turn into cooled baked pie shell. Chill until firm (15 to 20 minutes). Garnish with additional fruit, if desired.

SNACK BURGERS

Here's a quick trick for snack time. Cut a canned luncheon load into slices and broil, then spread with prepared mustard and serve in hamburger buns. Be sure to have sweet relish on the side.

SIMMERING—DEFINED

To simmer means to cook in liquid just below the boiling point, at temperatures of 185 to 210 degrees fahrenheit. In simmering, bubbles form slowly and break below the surface.

Spicy Foods Kill Sense Of Taste

How much thought do you give to the food you eat? Are you a complete slave to spices and strong seasonings, or have you maintained a taste for foods in their almost natural state?

Highly-seasoned foods serve no health or beauty purpose. Their only function is to disguise and distort your own taste and appreciation of what you are eating.

You can be positive that your complexion will be smoother, your hair, teeth and nails lovelier, and your body generally healthier, if you make the effort to control your eating habits.

It may not be easy at first to redevelop your taste preferences. In fact, you actually may not think you like the natural flavor of vegetables, fruits and other food essentials. But if you stick with your promise to keep seasoning to a minimun, soon you will be wondering how you managed otherwise.

Take care, too, not to overcook. It is so easy to lose the rich vitamin content of your foods by leaving them on the stove for five or ten minutes too long.

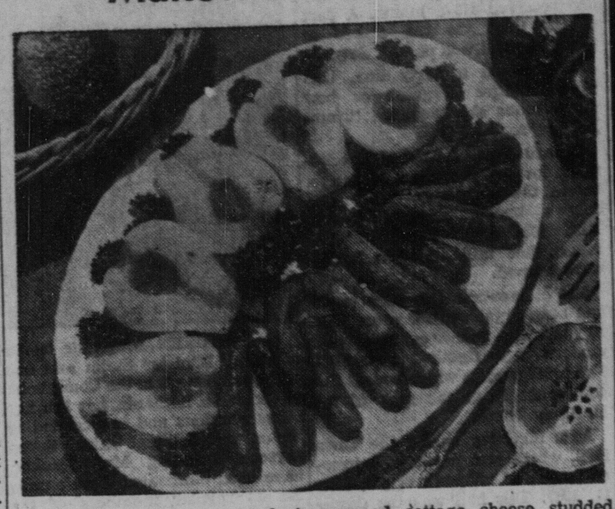
Another important beauty and health aid is careful meal planning. Don't overload a meal with starches. Be sure you include enough liquids and leafy vegetables.

Your appearance and physical stamina depend upon the good you eat. Can you honestly say you are being fair to yourself?

PARTY CAKES

Party cakes: Cut white cake in cubes or triangles. Make a confectioner's sugar frosting using enough liquid so that it will pour. Color frosting and pour over cakes covering tops and sides.

Make Most Of Pears



Canned Bartlett pears, now plentiful on market shelves, can pep up meals because they are so versatile. For breakfast, for instance, team them with golden-brown pork sausage.

Serve the pears straight from the can or sprinle them with brown sugar and broil just enough to heat through; put a spoonful of currant jelly in each core cavity for color. Along with hot rolls and coffee, this is a fine main dish to serve to Sunday brunch guests. Start the menu with chilled orange juice and cereal.

Canned pears make a delicious luncheon salad that's no trouble to prepare. Arrange the pear halves on a bed of torn mixed greens. Fill the core cavities of the pears with creamed cottage cheese studded with nuggets of crumbled Roquefort; garnish with strips of pimiento. Serve with a creamy French dressing that has enough paprika in it to make it a pretty pink.

For a festive dessert fill individual meringue shells with vanilla, chocolate, or orange ice cream; top with a canned pear half and accompany with the following sauce:

PEAR ORANGE SAUCE

2 tablespoons cornstarch
1 No. 2½ can pears
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
¼ cup orange juice

Put cornstarch in a saucepan; drain a little of the syrup from the pears and mix with cornstarch until smooth; stir in remaining pear syrup, orange rind, and orange juice.

Cook and stir over moderately low heat until thickened. Chill; serve over meringue shells filled with ice cream and topped with pear halves.

Delicate Desserts For Sunday Dinner

Now is the time for delicate desserts. Either of these recipes will bring your Sunday dinner to a lighheated close.

Fresh Strawberry Pie

Crust: 20 graham crackers, finely rolled (1 2-3 cup crumbs), ¼ cup softened butter or margarine, ¼ cup sugar.

Thoroughly blend together graham cracker crumbs, softened butter or margarine and sugar. Pour mixture into 9-inch pie plate; firmly press into an even layer against bottom and sides of plate. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 8 minutes. Cool.

Filling: 1 quart fresh strawberries, 3 tablespoons cornstarch, 1 cup sugar, juice 1 lemon, heavy cream, whipped.

Wash and hull berries, saving three for garnish. Put half of the berries into a saucepan and crush with a fork or pastry blender. Add cornstarch, sugar and lemon juice.

Cook and stir over moderate heat until mixture thickens and becomes clear; cool. Cut remaining berries in halves and stir gently into cooked mixture. Pour into graham cracker crumb crust; garnish with whipped cream and whole berries. Chill.

2 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ cup ground coffee
1½ cups milk
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup cold water
2 egg whites
1 cup heavy cream
3 tablespoons sugar
1 teaaspoon vanilla
Lady fingers
Maraschino cherries

Beat egg yolks. Add 2 tablespoons sugar gradually, beating constantly; add salt, Add coffee to milk, bring slowly to scalding point and strain through cheesecloth. Add to egg yolk mixture and cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until mixture coats spoon. Sprinkle gelatin on cold water and dissolve in hot custard. Cool slightly.

Beat egg whites stiff and fold in. Cool. Whip cream, add remaining sugar and vanilla and fold in. Line sherbet glasses with lady fingers. Fill with custard mixture. Chill until firm. Garnish with additional whipped cream and maraschino cherries. Six servings.

TO MAKE CROUTONS

To make croutons for a soup garnish, brown a cup of half-inch cubes of bread in two tablespoons butter or margarine. Use low heat in browning the bread cubes and stir often.

TRICKS FOR CLEANING

Every time you use your pressure saucepan, make sure that the vent tube is clear. A pipe cleaner will be useful in cleaning it.

Some types of sheep have hair and some types of goats have wool.

Homeworth Woman's Career Full Of Diverse Occupations

By PEARL WALKER

Diversity in occupation distinguishes the career of Miss Jean McGarry, 77, of Homeworth. The only woman in the village fire department, she has held the post of secretary-treasurer for some years. Then, too, she is the only woman coal dealer in that area.

Want to know anything about Homeworth's past? Ask Miss McGarry, say the villagers. A native, she is always interested in its lore. Time was when she knew all the villagers, but in the past few years new families have come to town.

A telephone operator for 45 years, she retired June 1, 1951. Beginning as a night operator, she was employed by the Eastern Ohio Telephone Co., formed at East Rochester. It was later absorbed by the North Georgetown and Paris Companies. They were taken over by the Ohio Associated Telephone Company.

Back in the early days Miss McGarry worked 12 hours a day and received $15 a month. A part of the time she had a bed at the office and was on call duty.

With 10 on a party line, who would venture a guess of how many times she has said, "Number please."

Village fires furnished excitement for the telephone operators, for in the early days there was only a bucket brigade. During Miss McGarry's service, three stores, one mill and two houses were burned.

The Homeworth fire department has been organized for more than 20 years and is now equipped with modern fire fighting apparatus. The brick garage which houses this equipment is at the rear of the McGarry home.

Miss McGarry owned the Town Hall, which was partially destroyed by fire of unknown origin, May 11, 1947. This hall was the center of all community affairs. There is another recreation center now.

Affiliated with the Homeworth Gas Company as a stockholder, the veteran read meters for 10 years. This company is now defunct. In her youth she tested cream for the village dairy. She has been in the coal business for 16 years, succeeding the late H. H. Heffner.

While she is not a dog fancier, she has a great love for dogs. At present she is befriending 10 homeless mongrels.

She is a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Alliance. A member of the Women's Benefit Association, she has served as its financial secretary for years.

Her father, John McGarry, was the first station agent for the Pittsburgh & Cleveland Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, which runs through the village. She attended a private school—Mt. De Chantel, Wheeling.

ANA PAUKER, long-time friend of Prime Minister Stalin and one of the top powers in the Communist hierarchy in Romania, has lost her party positions and is assumed to be on the political skids. Seven persons, including Mrs. Pauker, have been eliminated from among the 13 regular members of the Romanian all-powerful Politburo. A new one composed of nine members has been announced in the Bucharest press.

Senate Votes To Keep Control Over 21,582 Federal Posts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three of President Truman's government reorganization plans are dead in the wake of a Senate vote keeping congressional control over 21,582 federal jobs.

With many who normally support administration policies bucking the President, the Senate yesterday defeated in 1-2-3 order his proposals to eliminate Senate confirmation of city postmasters, U.S. marshals and customs collectors.

The program would have gone into effect automatically Friday midnight if neither the House nor the Senate had acted. It called for filling the jobs by department heads through civil service procedure.

Opponents argued that the three plans would merely transfer the politics of appointments from members of Congress to the administration in power.

They said department heads, especially the postmaster general, would get a chance to build a powerful political machine.

Backers of the program said it would wipe out the last big segment of the political spoils system.

The big fight was over the postmasters—21,438 of first, second and third class postoffices. With 49 or a majority of the full Senate needed to kill the proposal, the vote was 56 to 29.

The vote on the postmaster plan was in part a test between the influence of the postal employe unions, which opposed it, and the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report, which supported all the reorganization proposals.

The unions have been at odds with Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson, who would have named the postmasters under the reorganization.

TIP FOR CARROTS

Serve diced cooked carrots in a cream sauce seasoned with finely-grated onions; sprinkle with minced parsley.

SUPPER DISH

Springtime supper dish: Cooked asparagus spears rolled between thin slices of ham and topped with well-seasoned cheese sauce.

Use Molasses For Those Meat Dishes

They used to say molasses is a good spring tonic. Now that spring is here, let's try this "tonic" in two special meat dishes.

Kidney Bean and Ham Pie

2 No. 300 cans red kidney beans (4 cups)
1½ cups cooked ham, cut in small pieces
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon black pepper
½ teaspoon chili powder
3 tablespoons unsulphured molasses

Pastry, using 2 cups flour

Heat oven to 400 degrees F. (hot). Combine beans, ham, seasonings and molasses; pour into a 10-inch pie pan, lined with unbaked pastry. Roll remaining pastry into a circle, ⅛-inch thinck, from which cut 6 pie-shaped wedges.

Arrange pastry wedges over bean and ham mixture; seal edges to bottom crust and flute. Bake 30 to 35 minutes or until crust is brown. Six servings.

Beefsteak Roll-Ups in De Luxe Tomato Sauce

1 6-ounce can tomato paste
1 cup water
3 tablespoons unsulphured molasses
2 tablespoons cider vinegar
¼ cup chopped onion
¼ cup chopped green peppers
1¼ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon oregano
1 pound round steak cut in thin slices
¼ pound strong cheddar cheese

Mix tomato paste, water, molasses, vinegar, onions, green peppers and seasonings in a saucepan; cook slowly until thick. Pound each slice of steak until it is about ⅛-inch thick; cut into 12 pieces, 3 to 4 inches square and sprinkle lightly with salt.

Place a 3 x ½ x ½-inch piece of cheese in center of each meat square; roll up and hold in place with toothpick. Brown on all sides in a little hot fat; simmer 10 minutes in tomato sauce. Serve with rice, noodles or spaghetti. Six servings.

Hamburger Roll-Ups

Replace beefsteak, in the above recipe, with 1 pound ground beef, seasoned with 1¼ teaspoons salt, ½ teaspoon mustard and ¼ teaspoon black pepper. Pat into ten 4 x 4 x ⅛-inch squares. Proceed as in above recipe. Five servings.

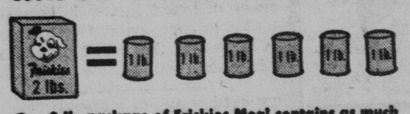
Special "get-acquainted" offer brings you Friskies—a complete dog food with a 20-year record of success!

NOW YOU CAN feed your dog the way the professionals do! Give him the full benefit of Friskies' famous complete nourishment!

THE FRISKIES FORMULA is the proud result of more than 50 years of research in animal nutrition! It was developed after years of testing with all sizes and types of dogs at the Friskies Research Kennels on the famous Carnation Milk Farm near Seattle.

WHEN YOU FEED FRISKIES, you can be certain that your dog is getting every single food element dogs are known to need! Remember ...every ingredient in Friskies is carefully selected and tested to measure up to only the very highest standards!

COSTS LESS THAN HALF AS MUCH TO FEED



One 2 lb. package of Friskies Meal contains as much moisture-free food as 6 cans of average dog food.

GUARANTEE
Your dog is guaranteed to like Friskies or your money back

FEED YOUR DOG AS EXPERTS HAVE BEEN DOING FOR 20 YEARS!

9 out of 10 Kennel Owners Feed a Dry-Type Food Like Friskies!

IT'S TRUE! No longer is it a secret why so many professional dog breeders feed Friskies!

THESE EXPERTS feed Friskies because it is one food that is scientifically balanced to provide every single food element dogs are known to need for complete nourishment!

Meat alone not enough!

YOUR DOG can be undernourished when fed even the most expensive meat. Friskies is rich in meat protein and is far more nourishing than meat alone...and since Friskies contains 19 individual ingredients your dog gets variety at every meal!

Millions of dogs love its "meaty" smell and flavor!

NOT ONLY will your dog go for Friskies, but you will save money! No costly "extras" are needed! When you feed Friskies, that's all your dog needs! So, you save on expensive "extra" meat, "extra" liver, "extra" milk, and "extra" eggs.

CHANGE TO FRISKIES PROFESSIONAL FEEDING method to keep your dog well-fed and frisky... and save money as well. Change to Friskies today... and look for the sure signs of a healthy, happy dog.

FRISKIES CUBES • Same famous formula in crunchy, bite-size morsels that exercise your dog's teeth and gums. Nothing to add...not even water. Like Friskies Meal, Friskies Cubes is a complete food. Serve both for variety!

Offer good only while special "get-acquainted" packages last!

Silver Thimble

Rita Swartz was hostess June 7 to members of the Silver Thimble 4-H Club. Roll call was answered by naming a favorite sport and the worship service was conducted by Janice Maxim.

A benefit was planned for July 12. Faye Cleckner, president, presided at the meeting and was voted song leader for all the get-togethers. The opening song was "Grandfather's Clock." The meeting ended with a wiener roast.

Sandy Cobourn will entertain July 1 at her home on the Cemetery Hill Rd.

Women To Keep Active At Menopause

The change of life, or menopause, usually begins about the age of 45 and takes several years before the adjustment is complete. Most women pass through it without either physical or mental disturbances of any serious nature.

Dr. Jordan

The menopouse is more than the ending of one physiological function. Actually, it represents the development of a new balance between the various internal glands which is caused by gradual slowing down of the functions of the ovaries.

The most obvious reflection of these changes is the cessation of the menses and the impossibility of further reproduction. Neither of these need produce any concern in the great majority of women. Nature has provided these changes for reasons which seem desirable both for the individual woman and for mankind as a whole.

Many women are greatly concerned about the possibilities for conception during the latter stages of the menopause. It is indeed difficult to tell exactly when conception is no longer possible, and many pregnancies have occurred up to 52 or even 55 years of age.

It has, however, been stated, that there is comparatively little chance of conceiving when a year or more has passed since the last period.

When symptoms do develop, the most common are hot flashes, abnormal menses, a tendency to melancholy, putting on weight, headaches and sleeplessness. Glandular products are now available which can be given by injection or by mouth which will help most of those whose symptoms are severe enough.

They act by supplying some of the internal secretion which the patient's own glands fail to supply. The possibility of adjusting the size of the dose to the need is particularly helpful.

This is a period when many women have leisure—often for the first time in many years. The menopause ushers in a period of life which has special opportunities for enjoyment.

During the usual two or three-year period of adjustment a woman should be active both mentally and physically. It is not too late to renew old interests which have perhaps fallen by the wayside while children were small or to develop new interests which a woman can follow the rest of her life.
